Senior Nutrition Program:

We will continue with Meals on Wheels delivery. If there is a disruption in service, current recipients will be notified directly.

Senior Centers/Congregate meals:

All senior centers are closing and will not be serving congregate/community meals. However, the following senior centers are providing meals through curbside delivery for seniors age 60+. Please contact the closest senior center to you to order a meal the day before by 1 PM Suggested donation of $3 a meal.

Statement for MAG:

In-home services:

We are continuing to provide in-home services and case management. All case management will be conducted virtually or by the phone. If you are not receiving services, please contact your case manager. If you cannot get a hold of your case manager, please call 801-229-3804.

HEAT Program:

In order to reduce applicant exposure to the COVID-19 virus, we are no longer accepting HEAT applications in person at DWS or MAG offices. HEAT applications can be submitted online (<https://sealapp.utah.gov/index.do>) and can be mailed to 478 South Geneva Road, Vineyard, UT 84059, emailed to heat@mountainland.org or faxed to 801-229-3670. For shut off or crisis applications, please contact 801-229-3855.
